CE around the District...

NFL is not the only group to highlight Breast Cancer Month.

MHRD is on the job...

In the true spirit of sports, many sport teams around the District have joined the NFL in promoting the awareness of breast cancer. The MK field hockey team sold t-shirts in support, donating the proceeds to breast cancer research. The MK girl's soccer team once again dyed streaks of pink in their hairs, (beards on the coaches) as a reminder of breast cancer month.

The MH girl's varsity volleyball team also sold T-shirts and pink volleyballs in support of breast cancer awareness. The Morris Knolls cheerleaders helped lead the St. Claire's walk for cancer. As you can see the NFL has nothing on MHRD.

- Al-Anon
- Morristown Memorial Hospital Trauma Service– Northern NJ Safe Kids/Safe Communities
- Overeaters
- High Focus
- And many more...

- The grand finale of the evening is the cutting of the DWI car with the Jaws of Life. Note: We would like to thank McCarter's Towing for providing the car and transporting it to and from the High School. This will be the fifth year they have volunteered their efforts

We encourage all parents and students to come participate and gather information to promote a Very Safe Home for our Morris Hills Regional District Community. Extra credit is offered by many District teachers for attendance at the evening portion.

Rachel's Challenge comes to MHRD.

MK and MH had the opportunity to experience a program based on dreams and goals of Rachel Joy Scott, the first student killed at Columbine High School. Her vision was that kindness and compassion could be passed on making the world a better place. Students at both high schools continue activities to promote the programs theme. Students place hand prints with goals or positive statements on banners to have as reminders we can all make a difference.
